

Winchester public Library Board Minutes

10-1-24

Jeanette is going to talk to John Paul about the Milliken money and see what we should do about it.

Nancy's dice, checked out a book and it got wet and she replaced it. She gave money for it.

We sold our first set of earbuds.

$500 for streamline, our website $80-$90 monthly upkeep. The $500 start up fee came from the tech grant.

Mike Cockrell is going to go with Alice to get the bricks this week.

New board member Heather will hopefully get approved tomorrow at the city Council meeting.

No painting of the basement. They decided that it was best to not paint it. we are going to just have it cleaned professionally.

An update on the conference that Jeanette went to. She got a lot of really good ideas to collaborate with the school.

Christmas – We are going to have a gingerbread disguise. Kids can decorate a gingerbread man and the winners will win a prize. It's going to be open for children pre-K through fourth grade.

We are in need of a new computer for the front desk.

We will continue to discuss, raising the money amount on the UCB card.

Jeanette received a call from Heather Loy - her uncle Alfred Ryder passed away and they have $3000-$5000 to donate but they want it for a specific project. We are thinking may be replacing our book return with it.

Book suggestions

Be Ready When the Luck Happens

By Ina Garten

Somewhere Beyond the Sea

T.J. Kline

Sequel to The House in the Cerulean Sea

Spy in Moscow Station

Eric Haseltine

Got Your Answers

Mike Greenberg

We Solve Murders

Richard Osman

Meeting adjourned by John seconded by RJ at 7:58 PM